Special thanks to Dean Stewart, Mr. Fox, and Mr. Maggs.

To the Student Body, Faculty and Administration of SSC;

We are writing this letter to you not as an apology but as an explanation. If you have been glancing through these pages and feel this yearbook lacks something, we would like to fill you in on the events which led up to its publication. In March, 1973, the editor of the yearbook resigned and the matter was placed in the hands of the S.G.A. There were a few people who expressed a desire to try and save the yearbook from being eliminated. A new staff was appointed and began work the first of April. With the help of a few students we were able to put together a yearbook despite the lack of time, funds and cooperation.

For a school that is growing as Salisbury State is, it would certainly have been a step backwards for us to loose a publication as important as a yearbook. This book may not win a literary award but it does show an effort to perserve a very important tradition.

As you look through these pages, don't be too hasty to criticize. Instead, think what can be done in the future to combine the progressive, new Salisbury State with the traditions which should always be part of a good school.

Hopefully, the situation which occurred in the publication of the 1973 yearbook will not happen again. We hope there are some students who feel saving this tradition is as important as we felt it was. At least for the benefit of the college in the future, we hope so.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Ahalt
